The Eighth Grade Mission is to provide all students with a strong academic foundation, a caring, safe environment that promotes respect, personal integrity, and academic success and responsibility, as well as encourage students to become lifelong learners and active contributors in school and throughout the community.

Your child's daily schedule will be comprised of a brief homeroom period, an advisory period, exploratory class period(s), an intervention/enrichment period, two academic core class periods, lunch, one academic core class period, and an organizational/teacher assistance period to conclude the day.

In preparing for the 2018-2019 school year, it is suggested that each student acquire a number of items to help ensure success:

- Several packs of pencils (wooden or mechanical).
- > One pack of colored pencils
- > Several blue or black ink pens
- ➤ Hi-Lighter markers

- ➤ Lined notebook paper (3 hole)
- > Two 3 ring binders at least size 1 ½" (ELA, Science/AC)
- > Two packages of dividers

We are looking forward to a fantastic school year with your child. If you have any questions or concerns, please call the school office at 845-1671.

Sincerely,

Eighth Grade Team Teachers
